कार्यक्रम का सारांश Summary of the programme: On 15th September 2025, a group of 29 enthusiastic students from De Paul College, Mysuru pursuing B. Com, BBA, and BCA degrees and studying Hindi and Kannada as part of their curriculum visited the Central Institute of Indian Languages (CIIL) and the National Testing Service-I (NTS-I) on an educational visit. The visit aimed to provide students with valuable insights into the linguistic diversity and richness of India; language teaching, research, and documentation; and the various activities of the institute and its schemes, and academic and technical resources available to students at CIIL.

Dr. Pankaj Dwivedi, Assistant Director of CIIL, extended a warm welcome to the students and faculty members from De Paul College and outlined the objectives of the event.

During the session, the students were guided and oriented by the resource persons from NTS-I. Dr. R. Shakunthala, Dr. Shridevi, Shri Kashyap N., and Shri Ancy Thomas provided an overview of CIIL's activities, schemes, and the resources and materials accessible to students. Dr. Vidyarati Joshi delivered a comprehensive talk on the linguistic diversity and richness of India, while Dr. Aiswariya G. Shajan shared valuable insights into language teaching, research, and documentation.

Dr. Murali Mohana N., handled all communications and correspondence with the administrators of De Paul College, organised the necessary logistical arrangements, and moderated the sessions. Shri Ramesh Patel M.J. (SPPEL), Smt. Uma Maheshwari, Shri C. Prasad, Shri Mahadevaswamy C., and Shri P. Praveenkumar of NTS-I efficiently executed their assigned responsibilities, ensuring the smooth conduct of the event.

13. टिप्पणियाँ/Remarks :	The educational visit provided students with a valuable opportunity to engage with the institute's academic environment, enhancing their understanding of language research, teaching, and cultural diversity.
